A stunning and unique location
where professionalism combines effortlessly with heritage and hospitality

Whether it is business or pleasure Hagley Hall can be yours exclusively for the day. If you are organising a small conference or looking for something uniquely different this venue can fulfill your requirements and expectations.

Gala dinners, product launches, seminars, conferences, presentations and celebrations can be held in any of our four elegant State Rooms which house works of art, exquisite plasterwork, and which provide magnificent views of the estate. Whatever you choose you can rest assured that the experienced staff at Hagley Hall will be on hand to help with all aspects of your event, making it one that you and your guests will remember.

As Hagley Hall is not an hotel we do not need to worry about the needs of other clients so we can truly offer you an exclusive service and accommodate your every need.

Enter the Hall from the impressive Perron steps into the White Hall. Natural sunlight illuminates this reception room and its wonderful arched lobby and scagliola figures of the Gods, such as Bacchus and Venus, provide a perfect welcome for your important guests whether its an evening reception or an all day conference.

The Saloon, with its ornate plasterwork, offers the most beautiful and historic setting with quintessentially English views of the village church and cricket ground. The magnificent double doors open from the White Hall to the Saloon giving you more space for your event and an impressive double aspect. The Saloon is also available for dining and can seat up to 60.

If your numbers are up to 250 for a reception style event then the Gallery with its breathtaking chandeliers and enchanting views of the deer park, makes for a spectacular setting. This exquisitely decorated room, with its oyster coloured Chinese silk wall coverings, caters for 110 guests for a seated dinner and is superbly lavish in both style and decor.

For smaller parties the richly decorated Crimson Dining Room, overlooking the front lawn and beyond to the rolling hills of Worcestershire, is ideal for intimate dining or board room meetings for up to 28.

If you have very large numbers then we can arrange for a marquee to be placed in the grounds with the Hall as a spectacular backdrop.

Our experienced staff are totally committed to fulfilling your every need whether you desire a board room meeting for ten or a marquee extravaganza in the picturesque parkland.

“All of our corporate dining services are tailor made to suit each client so we can concentrate all our efforts on making your day a truly memorable one.”
