HALL OF FAME

Where better to showcase Selfridges' finest designer fashions than in the stately surroundings of Hagley Hall?

Hagley Hall welcomed Selfridges for an exclusive fashion shoot, giving Select Living readers a sneak preview of their summer clothes collection. The 18th century house offered a rich and original backdrop for a hand-picked selection of top outfits from some of Selfridges' most revered designers. Hagley Hall is the privately owned family home of the 12th Lord and Lady Cobham and was proud to open its doors for this exclusive fashion shoot. One of the most celebrated achievements of 18th century architecture and landscaping, the Hagley estate has been an inspiration to artists and designers for over 200 years. Hagley Hall has been featured in many television programmes and documentaries and is also used for a whole range of corporate events for many established brands such as Land Rover.
